

ROCHE CENTER FOR CATHOLIC EDUCATION
BOSTON COLLEGE
Lynch School of Education

The Emmaus Leadership Series

Schools of Plenty: Finance and Philanthropy

January 23rd, 2018

The Connors Family Retreat and Conference Center
20 Glen St, Dover, MA 02030

Agenda

- 8:30-9:30 am Early Bird Café, Coffee and light fare provided
- 9:00 am Arrival, Coffee and Networking
- 9:30 am Opening Prayer & Welcome, Estate Room
- 9:50 am Financial Planning: On the Road to Sustainability, Estate Room
Adam Krueckeberg, Interim Executive Director,
Student Services, Boston College
- 11:00 am Building a Culture of Philanthropy, Estate Room
Ray Witkowski and Matthew Gembecki,
Managing Directors, Changing Our World, Inc.
- 12:00 pm Lunch, Dining Room
- 1:00 pm Breakout Session I
- On-site participants
- An Electronic Tool Box for Planning, Estate Room
Patricia Weitzel-O'Neill, Executive Director,
The Roche Center for Catholic Education,
Boston College
Sam Urh, Graduate Student, The Lynch School of Education, Boston College
 - Developing a Compelling Case for Support, Main Parlor
Matthew Gembecki
- Virtual participants
- A Financial Planning Sandbox
Adam Krueckeberg
 - Getting Your Board More Involved in Fundraising
Ray Witkowski
- 2:10 pm Breakout Session II (presentations are repeated)
- 3:15 pm Wrap-up, closing prayer

#EmmausSeries

www.EmmausSeries.org

www.RocheCenter.org